KATHEN PROBABILITIES.—For this week fair tonight and Saturday; variable.

SCIENCE.—As was stated in the Gazette the body of a well dressed white man was found lying beside the tracks of the Washington Southern Railway at Brooks' Crossing, about a mile below Franconia station, a short distance from this city, yesterday. Two small, but deep cuts in the throat and an open pocket-knife lying beside the prostrate form, told the story of suicide. The man was dressed in good clothes, with white shirt, blue serge coat and trousers of mixed goods. He weighed about 150 pounds, and appeared to be from twenty-eight to thirty years of age. Shortly after the discovery R. C. Triplett, a Justice of the Peace, was notified, and summoned a coroner's jury who, after viewing the body and hearing statements from persons who had seen and talked with the man, returned a verdict of suicide while suffering from temporary aberration of mind. The man appeared in Franconia Wednesday evening carrying a small valise. His erratic movements and peculiar actions attracted particular attention. Several hours after nightfall he applied at the home of Arthur Jasper, colored, for a night's lodging, and was accommodated. Here the man's actions also attracted much attention, and led his host to believe he was demented. The stranger departed in the morning, and was not again seen until his body was found. From papers found on his person it was ascertained that the stranger's name was Walker, although there was nothing to show what his first name was, and that his home was somewhere in Georgia, where, according to a letter found in his pocket, he now has a brother residing. Another letter showed that Walker went to Franconia from Washington on Wednesday. Still another letter showed that Walker had tried to dispose of some chemicals at police headquarters in Baltimore on either Monday or Tuesday, but was unsuccessful. A copper cent and a bunch of keys were the only articles found in his pockets, but in his valise he had several articles of wearing apparel and a few bottles of some chemical compound.

MUSICAL.—The Opera House was filled last night by the friends of the pupils of Mr. Wm. H. Starnell's music class, the occasion being their second annual musicale. The stage was artistically decorated, which added much to the occasion. Space will not permit to speak of each pupil separately, but suffice it to say, they all acquitted themselves most admirably. The class was assisted by Miss Mal Greenwell, whose rendition of "Pia" proved that young lady to be a vocalist of rare ability, while Miss Rebecca Polari sang in her usual good style "Fare thee to the Desert I Come to Thee," for which she received quite an ovation. Miss Knight, who so kindly as well as so capably filled the number to have been sung by the female quartette, also came in for her share of the applause. Mr. Walter Birch was at his best and his singing of the "Gypsy Love Song" was much enhanced by a violin obbligato played by Professor Yundt, whose ability as a violinist is well known. Mr. Starnell was assisted in the accompaniments by Mr. Archibald Olmstead, who is one of Washington's well known and favorite pianists. The programme was well rendered throughout, and Misses Pearl Chase, Florence Oshert, Gracie Harrison, Nellie Besseleyre, Jessie Besseleyre, Eliza Bruin, Ruth Curtin, Helen Leaf, Myrtle Good, Evelyn Lloyd, Elsie Hamilton, and Edna Jackson, and Messrs. Clarence Morcan, Z. B. Goldsmith and Lemuel Windsor, the scholars who participated, were justly appreciated.

CASE DISMISSED.—A young man was arrested last night by Officers Beach and Knight as he was about to come out of the store of Chester Scott on King street near St. Asaph. He was taken to the station house and locked up till this morning when the case came up before the Mayor. The evidence of the officers showed that the man-hole on the pavement of the store had been raised and a noise on the inside of the store attracted their attention about 11:40. About 11:45 the young man broke the fastening from inside with a hatchet and opening the door to come out was confronted by the officers with drawn pistols and placed under arrest. There was nothing found on him and nothing was taken from the store. The proprietor's statement was that he had been proprietor of the same store and had been in the habit of going in at all hours and that he had no recollection of going in last night as he was drunk and oblivious of his surroundings, and that his intimacy with the present proprietor was evidenced by his frequent visits to him at his store. Mr. Chester Scott did not appear against the prisoner and the Mayor said that the failure of the injured party to prosecute was not in itself positive evidence that he allowed the prisoner to enter his premises at all hours and in any manner, but that he, the Mayor, in the absence of the natural complainant felt justified in dismissing, for the present, the case, leaving the future of the accused to be determined by the wishes of Mr. Scott.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor G. L. Simpson presiding. The following cases were disposed of this morning: W. B. Groat, charged with being drunk and disorderly and assaulting J. B. Carter with a pistol, was fined $20. A young man charged with breaking and entering the store of Chester Scott, was dismissed.

Bailey Braxton, colored, charged with peddling without a license, had his case continued.

Isaac Edney, colored, charged with assaulting and beating E. Edney, colored, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and mild. Three prisoners were at the station house.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Michael McGrath, of Washington, who was drowned at River View on Tuesday night last by the boat in which he was rowing in being struck by a steamboat, was recovered this morning and taken back to Washington on the Washington harbor police boat.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—The closing exercises of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, ended today with the ordination services which began at 11 a. m. and were largely attended. In the chancel were Bishops Whittle, Gibson, Randolph and Peterkin, the latter preaching the ordination sermon.

The three candidates for the priesthood, Revs. W. N. Claybrook, C. E. A. Marshall and G. B. Griffith, were presented by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis and were ordained by Bishop Gibson.

Messrs B. L. Ancell, M. A.; Edw. L. Brosius, J. J. Chapman, J. H. Cox, B. J. Darnelle and C. F. McKee, M. A., were presented by Rev. Prof. Massie and were ordained deacons by Bishop Whittle.

Rev. Beverly Tucker, of Norfolk, presented the Southern Virginia candidates for deacons—Messrs. G. McL. Brydon, E. R. Carter, Frank Mezik, G. W. Ribble, Thos. R. Russell and H. St. G. Tucker, M. A.—who were ordained by Bishop Randolph.

Rev. Mr. Gibson presented Harris B. Thomas, who was ordained deacon by Bishop Peterkin.

Rev. C. E. Ball, of Grace Church, Alexandria, presided at the organ and directed the choir. The services were of an unusually interesting nature.

Those who will enter the foreign missionary field and go to Japan, China and Brazil are Messrs. Ancell, Chapman, McKee, Ribble, Tucker and J. A. Welbourn. The latter was ordained in Baltimore recently.

Messrs. Cox, Carter and Darnelle will go to Nevada.

Messrs. Brydon, Mezik and Russell will go to Southern Virginia, the latter to Bristol.

None of the deacons will remain in the diocese of Virginia.

Rev. Mr. Griffith, who was ordained priest, has been called as assistant to Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia.

PERSONAL.—Judge R. H. Turner, of Front Royal, is visiting his father, Mr. Chas. M. Marshall, at her home near this city.

County Clerk Howard H. Young, who has been very ill for a month past, is much better and is now about to resume his duties at the court house.

Wm. S. Clark, son of Alderman Thos. Clark, is quite sick at his home No. 114 South Fayette street.

Miss Fannie Smith is visiting Miss Lillian Hall in Occoquan.

Mrs. Frances B. Ewing and family will spend the month of July in Piedmont Virginia.

Miss Lizzie E. daughter of Mr. James M. Boyd, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Hume at "Warwick."

MASONIC.—At the meeting last night of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons the following officers were elected and appointed: Benj. M. Aitchison, Worshipful Master; August E. Oshert, Senior Warden; J. Fred Birrell, Junior Warden; Thos. W. Robinson, Treasurer; Jas. S. Douglas, Secretary; Wallace H. Fawcett, Senior Deacon; Robt. W. Arnold, Junior Deacon; S. R. Dishman and Henry F. Charles, Stewards; Wm. A. Moore, Tyler; Rev. P. P. Phillips, Chaplain. These officers and those of Andrew Jackson Lodge will be installed on Saturday night next—St. John's night.

CRAB FEAST.—Mr. Carl Bohraus, the genial and courteous manager of the Concordia Hotel, will tonight give a crab feast to his many friends and the public. The guests will also be afforded a musical treat, Prof. Richard Heiser and Samuel Smith, of New York, who are stopping in the city, having volunteered their services for the occasion. These two gentlemen are accomplished performers on the mandolin, guitar and zither, and those who have the pleasure of hearing them tonight will no doubt endorse their well-merited reputation.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbors getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by J. H. Hanney, Druggist, 701 King st.

Men's and Ladies'—The receipts are some 3,700 head more than they were last week. Trade is reported as being fairly active for good stock at unchanged figures from those of Monday. Old sheep sold at 1½¢, and a few extra at 4½¢ per lb. Lambs 60¢, and extra shipping lambs at 6½¢ per lb.

Swine—There are still no far Western hogs reported. The sales last recorded are the same as on Monday, there being no change in value since then. Light hogs from near by points sold at $4.45 and heavy weight at $3.90 to $4.10 per 100 lb. Cows and calves at the latter price; light pigs $3.50 to $3.75, and roughs at $2.75 to $3.25 per 100 lb.

Fresh Cows—There is a light offering, but there is enough for the moderate demand prevailing at former prices; viz: $20.50 per head, with a few selling at the latter figure.

Calves—There is a light offering of veals reported and trade is active at 4½¢ advance. Prices 5½¢ to 6½¢ per lb.

Chicago Cattle Market, June 22.—Cattle.—The market for cattle was strong, buyers being keenly everything offered at yesterday's best price; good to fancy cattle sold at $5.05 to $5.60, commoner grades brought $4.50 to $5.00, feeding cattle $3.65 to $4.20, bulls, cows and heifers $2.25 to $3.10, the latter price for choice veals; Westerns $3.50 to $4.00, Texas steers $4.50 and calves $4.50 to $5.00. Hogs.—Continued heavy receipts of hogs made less animated, and prices ruled 5½¢ lower; light hogs sold at $3.65 to $3.87½, mixed $3.65 to $3.85, and heavy at $3.55 to $3.85; pigs $3.50 to $3.80, and culls $3.50 to $3.80. Sheep.—Prices for sheep and lambs were weaker, the demand being slow and the offerings heavy; sheep sold at $2.50 to $3.50 for inferior, up to $5.50 for choice fleeces; clipped lambs brought $5.60 to $6.00, Colorado woolled lambs $7, and spring lambs $5.75 to $6.00.

New York Cattle Market, June 22.—Beefers.—Beefers—no trading; feeling steady. Calves.—market steady; common to choice veals $5.47 to $5.60 per 100 lb. Sheep and Lambs.—good sheep steady, and firm; other steady; common lambs slow; all others firm; good lambs a shade higher; common to prime sheep $3.50 to $3.80 per 100 lb; poor to choice lambs $5.75 to $6.12½; general sales at $7.75 per 100 lb. Hogs.—market higher; light State pigs would sell at $4.35 per 100 lb.

317 KING STREET. NOTICE TO CITY TAXPAYERS.

Collector's Office, June 19, 1899. Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1899 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1899, the Collector of the tax shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1899, he shall allow a discount of five per cent., and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1899, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent. upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1900, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Tax-payers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days when the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to show you get title for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.
